SOLVING THE PROBLEM

CHALLENGE Slow, capped Internet is holding your household back. Data runs out mid-month, streaming buffers, video calls drop – and you’re stuck paying for a service that can’t keep up with how you actually live.

SOLUTION Vox Fibre to the Home brings a dedicated Fibre-Optic line directly into your home, delivering speeds up to 1 Gbps, with unlimited, unshaped data and zero fair-use limits. Work, stream, game and connect: all at the same time, without compromise.

KEY BENEFITS

>> Blazing Fast Speeds

From 10 Mbps to 1 Gbps: you can stream, game, video call and browse, simultaneously without slowdowns.

>> Truly Unlimited Data

No data caps, no fair-use limits, no throttling. Use as much as you need, every single day.

>> No Lock-in Contracts

Month-to-month flexibility. Upgrade, downgrade or cancel whenever it suits your household.

>> 60 Free Voice Minutes

Download the Vobi app and get 60 free minutes of calls to any SA number, every month.

>> Free Setup and Router

Free-to-use Wi-Fi Router worth R1 000 and free installation for up to R2 500 on selected packages.

ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS

Vox Kiwi Wireless

A reliable middle ground between mobile data and Fibre: ideal for semi-rural or under-served areas.

Vox LTE / 4G Backup

Mobile-based broadband for temporary use or as a failover – lower cost, subject to carrier data limits.

Vox Satellite

For remote or rural locations beyond microwave coverage – reliable connectivity where no other fixed option reaches.
